LEECH MURDER HAS NOT REPORTED VERDICT

Further Instructions Have Not Been Asked From the Judge Since Retirement.

MAY HOLD THE JURY UNTIL TERM ENDS

At 3:15 o'clock Thursday afternoon, the jury in the case of John Leech, charged with murder, had not reported. The members of the panel, following the instructions delivered by special Judge Patrick H. Clarke, retired to deliberate Wednesday afternoon at 5:15 o'clock and remained closed in the jury room until 6 o'clock, when they were taken to supper. The lights in the jury room were flicked off Wednesday night at 10 o'clock. Including four counts, first degree murder, second degree murder, manslaughter, and self defense, Judge Clark delivered his instructions upon the convening of court Wednesday afternoon. The instructions embraced 25 paragraphs. Supplementary instructions prepared by the defense were also submitted to the jury, following the presentation to judge Clarke.

Thinking that a verdict might be returned Wednesday night, a large number gathered at the court house to await any decision. Included in the number were district attorney Howe, Judge Wharton, of the defense, court attaches, interested spectators at the trial, and newspaper men. All left for their homes after 10 o'clock. Judge Clarke also visited the court house Wednesday night.

Judge Will Be Called. Immediately upon the announcement that a verdict has been reached by the jury, Judge Clarke will be summoned to the courthouse. He has made arrangements so that he can be reached by calling one of a half dozen phone numbers. Leech will also be brought to the courthouse immediately upon the jury reaching a decision. This rule will be carried out, whether the jury reaches a verdict at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, or at that time in the morning.

Many Inquiries. Telephone calls at all courthouse offices, the inquirers asking if a verdict has been reached in the case, have been numerous since early Wednesday afternoon. This has been especially true of the inquiries made at the sheriff's office, and district clerk.

Phones in The Herald office were kept busy until after 10 o'clock Wednesday night and all day Thursday by persons interested in the case. Deputy sheriffs Juan Franco and J. D. Newton are in charge of the jury and have been since the men were impounded. At night they sleep in the room with the jurors, but remain out of the hall during the deliberations. Judge Clarke may hold the jury together until the close of the term, Nov. 7, although it is probable that he will dismiss the panel in the event a verdict is not reached within a few days, or there is no possibility of reaching one.

PHILADELPHIA WINS THIRD GAME OF WORLDS SERIES

Philadelphia 12 15 1
Chicago 5 6 4

a running catch of Lord's long fly. Fine rain has begun falling. Steinfield was barely safe to check Collins's fierce hit which was a safe one. Collins scored when Shulte took Baker's single pass him, Baker taking third on the error. Davis was hit by a ball and went to first. Murphy then drove a home run over the screen into the right field bleachers. Baker and Davis scoring ahead of him. Chicago's infield protested that it should have been a double, and captain Chance was ordered off the field, Archer taking his place. Pfeister then took McIntyre's place in the box. Barry knocked the first ball pitched into the center field crowd for two bases and scored when Tinker made a bad throw of Thomas's grounder. Thomas doubled at second on Coombs's hit to Zimmerman. Five runs.

Fourth Inning. Philadelphia's center fielder Strunk flew out to Hoffman in center field. Lord hit safely to right center for a single but was forced at second by Collins. Collins was caught trying to steal on catcher Kling. No runs.
